

Noise	Ok	Problem	Irrelevant
Is the feeding machine so noisy that you cannot stand beside it and speak together in a normal tone of voice?
Is it necessary to work in the vicinity of the feeding machines?
Is it possible to encapsulate the noise or diminish it in another way?
Is ear protection available close to the source of noise?
Is the ear protection being used?
Safety	Ok	Problem	Irrelevant
Is the machine / the system CE-marked?
Are all safety guards in place, so that nothing can get stuck?
Are rotating / working parts shielded properly?
Do all machines have emergency stop devices?
Do all safety measures and automatic emergency stop devices work?
Do shields and doors break down under normal use?
Is the machine examined at least every 12 months for errors, wear and defects by yourself or an expert?
Is it possible to document the annual inspection in writing?
Have all employees received the necessary instruction in the use of the machine?
Are possible rails for feeding lanes inspected for wear?
Are the chains inspected for wear?
Repair / Cleaning	Ok	Problem	Irrelevant
Do you turn off the main switch when you need to repair or clean the machine?
Is it possible to padlock the main switch?
Has the repairer received the necessary instruction?
Has the repairer of the machine been instructed where sharp parts such as knives and the like are placed?
Do you have regular routines to inform each other about repairs?
Accidents and absenteeism	Ok	Problem	Irrelevant
Can anything on the machine be improved to improve the safety?
Have you experienced near misses in connection with the automatic feeding?
Is it necessary to work, clean or repair the feeding system up in the height?
Do you use of the necessary safety measures?
Does the working environment cause absence at the work with the feeding system?
Ergonomics	Ok	Problem	Irrelevant

Is there heavy manual handling, for example. when filling up the plant?
Various	Ok	Problem	Irrelevant