

Moving of sows, finishers and weaners	Ok	Problem	Irrelevant
Is there extra and experienced personnel available, when the animals are to be moved?
Is there enough space in the passage paths when the animals are to be driven?
Is the transport road slippery?
Is the transport road without holes or other irregularities?
Have you received information about animals' behavior patterns?
Do you have a calm handling of the animals, both in general and when they are moved?
Do you have a permanent routine when moving animals?
Do you have enough time when the animals are moved?
Do you make use of driving boards at the moving?
Are your driving boards made of light materials?
Do you wear knee protectors when driving sows by means of driving boards?
Do you use dust masks when moving the animals?
Are the weaners transported in carts in the weaning period?
Transport of dead / sick animals	Ok	Problem	Irrelevant
Are there suitable facilities at hand when a dead / sick animal or a bigger finisher are to be removed from the piggery?
Boars	Ok	Problem	Irrelevant
Are more persons present when you are in the stall / piggery, where the boar is?
Is there always an experienced person present helping the unexperienced?
Have you been instructed in the boars' behaviour?
Is there any risk that 2 boars can collide?
Are the necessary escape routes available?
Are fiery boars sent to slaughtering in due time?
Castration, tail docking, polishing of teeth and vaccination of piglets	Ok	Problem	Irrelevant
Do you use ear protection when you are performing these tasks?
Are you able to have a pleasant working position (height) when performing these tasks?
Are you able to sit on the edge between the stalls, when you castrate?
Is it possible to let the pigs into the covered creep area so they are gathered when they are to be picked up from the pigsty?
Have you collected all tools in a box so that they are available when you start working?
Is it possible to fixate the pigs on a castration bench?
Have the employees had the necessary instruction in ergonomics, noise and the use of the tools?

Do you have enough time for the task?
Mating and treatment of sows	Ok	Problem	Irrelevant
Is it possible to shield animals being treated / inseminated from other animals?
Do you use safety footwear?
Do you use ear protection?
Do you have a good working position when you mate the sows?
Do you have a good working position, when you are performing the gestation control?
Do you have enough time for the task?
Other tasks with the animals	Ok	Problem	Irrelevant
Do you have a calm handling of the animals?
Have you been instructed in the sows' behaviour when they are vaccinated?
Are animals with a difficult temperament slaughtered?
Do you use the breeding to get as calm animals as possible?
Do you see to it that handles and gates are easy to operate?
Weighing	Ok	Problem	Irrelevant
Is the weighing machine placed properly?
Are the employees instructed in how the task is performed in the best way?
Are you wearing dust masks, when you weigh the animals?
Hygiene	Ok	Problem	Irrelevant
Do you have MRSA in the pig herd?
Various	Ok	Problem	Irrelevant